

Logan Spindler's dad, Scott Spindler, has been serving in the Middle East for one month. His tour is expected to last 6 months to 1 year. I would like to put a care package together from the youth group. His dad has listed a few things he would like. Please bring these items to the BOB by Sunday, September 11. If you have any questions, you can call me at 314-910-3059 or email me at stlouislegrands@mac.com.

Thanks,

Jennifer LeGrand

List from his dad:

1. Battery for my alarm clock (shippers lost the one I mailed with it): CR2032 (flat, about size of a quarter)
2. 2 Containers of Hair Gel (can't believe I only brought one, uggg) / think I get it at Target: Garnier, Fructis Style // Super Stiff Gel (green tube, 6.8 oz)
3. 6 large Diaper Safety Pins (need to pin some of my tent together--interior lining)
4. 10 to 12 Clothes Pins (use them to hang sheet divider between living spaces)
5. Some "blank inside" greeting cards
6. Set of Art Coloring Pencils (keep me from losing my mind when/if things slow down)
7. Straight Edge (ruler thing with geometric shapes so I can trace them; usually square shaped, think they have them at staples)
8. Viva Starbucks instant brew coffee (12 count / carton)--NO DECAF, serves no purpose (o:
9. Couple of Mountain Bike (bicycle) Magazines

Man, I feel like I just made a Christmas list...bottom line, anything in a box is welcomed. I appreciate the group wanting to send something.
